

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 981

---

Introduced by Assembly Member Feuer

February 27, 2009

An act to amend Section 466.1 of the Penal Code, relating to burglary tools.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 981, as introduced, Feuer. Burglary tools.

Existing law provides that any person who knowingly and willfully sells or provides a lock pick, a tension bar, a lock pick gun, a tubular lock pick, or a floor-safe door puller, to another, whether or not for compensation, shall obtain the name, address, telephone number, if any, date of birth, and driver's license number or identification number, if any, of the person to whom the device is sold or provided.

This bill would make a technical, nonsubstantive change to these provisions.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1     SECTION 1. Section 466.1 of the Penal Code is amended to
2     read:
3     466.1. ~~Any~~ Every person who knowingly and willfully sells
4     or provides a lock pick, a tension bar, a lock pick gun, a tubular
5     lock pick, or a floor-safe door puller, to another, whether or not
6     for compensation, shall obtain the name, address, telephone
7     number, if any, date of birth, and driver's license number or

1 identification number, if any, of the person to whom the device is
2 sold or provided. This information, together with the date the
3 device was sold or provided and the signature of the person to
4 whom the device was sold or provided, shall be set forth on a bill
5 of sale or receipt. A copy of each bill of sale or receipt shall be
6 retained for one year and shall be open to inspection by any peace
7 officer during business hours.
8 Any person who violates any provision of this section is guilty
9 of a misdemeanor.
